Enduring Understanding/s:	Essential Question/s:
1. Musicians' presentation of creative work is the culmination of a process of creation and communication. 2. Musicians judge performance based on criteria that vary across time, place, and cultures. The context and how a work is presented influence the audience response. 3. The personal evaluation of musical works and performances is informed by analysis, interpretation, and established criteria. 4. Musicians connect their personal interests, experiences, ideas, and knowledge to creating, performing, and responding.	1. When is creative work ready to share? 2. When is a performance judged ready to present? How do context and the manner in which musical work is presented influence audience response? 3. How do we judge the quality of musical work(s) and performance(s)? 4. How do musicians make meaningful connections to creating, performing, and responding?
