March 12, 2020

To the Entire Bayonne Public School Community,

Today, March 12, 2020, at 1:30 pm Mayor James Davis declared a State of Emergency for the city of Bayonne in reference to the Coronavirus (COVID-19).

The Bayonne School District will be closed beginning tomorrow, March 13th, with an anticipated return date of Monday, March 30, 2020.

Tomorrow, March 13th – students are off. Do not report to school & no virtual learning.

All faculty and staff will report to work for a Professional Development Day to review rules and regulations pertaining to our new Virtual Learning process. (There will be no Staff Training Day on March 27, 2020.)

Please be advised that Virtual Learning will be available to all staff, faculty and students on the BBOED website. Also please see the parent letter on Remote Schooling which is going out today to everyone.

From March 13th – March 29th, all student activities and clubs are cancelled. Our facilities are closed.

Please remember to check your email and our website each day for any updates to the situation.

Sincerely,

John J. Niesz
Superintendent
