Session Overview:

New Jersey has enacted one of the most comprehensive, and complicated, anti-bullying laws in the nation. In this session, participants will learn how New Jersey defines harassment, intimidation and bullying, the reporting and investigation requirements that apply, the due process rights available to parents and students, and important revisions to New Jersey law that went into effect in July, 2022. This session will include sample scenarios to help understand what constitutes bullying under New Jersey law.
