 Core Ideas Interactions of people and events throughout history have shaped the world we experience today. Demographic shifts and migration patterns both influence and are impacted by social, economic, and political systems. Complex interacting factors influence people's perspective. Historical events and developments were shaped by the unique circumstances of time and place as well as broader historical contexts. advancements in 	6.1.12.HistoryUP.3.b: Examine a	ecommended Activities, Investigations, disciplinary Connections, and/or Student riences to Explore NJSLS-SS within Unit

 Core Ideas: Civic participation and deliberation are essential characteristics of productive citizenship. Global economic activities involve decisions based on national interests, the exchange of different units of exchange, decisions of public and private institutions, and the ability to distribute goods and services safely. Evidence from multiple relevant historical sources and interpretations can be used to develop a reasoned argument about the past. Governments around the world support universal human rights to varying degrees. 	 Performance Expectation: 6.3.12.CivicsPD.1: Develop plan for public accountability and transparency in government related to a particular issue(s) and share the plan with appropriate government officials. 6.3.12.EconGE.1: Participate in a simulated meeting (e.g., President's Council, World Bank, International Monetary Fund (IMF), research evidence from multiple sources about an economic problem (e.g., inflation, unemployment, deficit), and develop a plan of action. 6.3.12.HistoryCA.2: Analyze a current foreign policy issue by considering current and historical perspectives, examining strategies, and presenting possible actions. 6.3.12.CivicsHR.1: Compare current case studies involving slavery, child labor, or other unfair labor practices in the United States with those of other nations and evaluate the extent to which these human rights violations are a universal problem. 6.3.12.HistoryCA.1: Analyze the impact of current governmental practices and laws affecting 	 Essential Questions: How did the arrival of Africans in Chesapeake affect the developing colonies in North America? What factors led a change in statue of blacks from servitude to slavery? How was slavery different in different locations? How did African American culture originate? How did people resist slavery? How did the economic, political, and social policies differ among the colonizing nations of England, Spain, France, and Portugal in the Americas? Activity Description: Utilize facts and content-specific vocabulary. Trace the development of race-based slavery. Evaluate the factors that determined the way in which slaves lived. Compare/Contrast the lives of slaves living in different regions and countries. Summarize the connections between slavery and the economic growth of the colonies. Provide examples of resistance to slavery.
