3151 ASSESSMENT OF PAY

The Board of Education believes that the proper performance of a teaching staff member's professional duties requires the punctual commencement and proper completion of all assigned services.

The principal shall assess the following penalties when a teaching staff member fails to render or only partially renders services for which the Board has contracted; the accumulation of four unexcused instances of tardiness in a one month period will result in a wage deduction. The principal shall determine whether a teaching staff member's tardiness or absence is excused or unexcused.

A record of instances of tardiness and absences will be maintained in each teaching staff member's personnel file in accordance with Policy No. 3212.
