available; and

d. Recommendations for the use of off-the-job training programs known to meet district needs.

C. On-the-job training

1. On-the-job training is that given to employees while they are at their assigned work stations.

2. On-the-job training shall be directed primarily to new employees and those whose job responsibilities have been changed.

3. On-the-job training programs shall be developed by the district; the assistance of experts is encouraged with approval of the Superintendent.

4. Scheduling of training on the job will be the responsibility of the Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds and the principal.

5. The outcome of training on the job should be a higher level of performance by each affected employee.

D. Off-the-job training

1. Off-the-job training is that attended by employees during or after their regular job assignments but away from their assigned work stations.

2. Training off the job should generally be directed to those employees who have specialized workplace needs.

4. Scheduling and payment for off-the-job training shall be the responsibility of the employee.

E. Training effectiveness

1. Employees assigned to training off the job shall complete a district form designed to evaluate the effectiveness of the program.

2. The Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds and the principal shall review the performance of each employee assigned training either on or off the job 30 to 45 days
